HARC, Inc. (Health Assessment and Research for Communities) in Palm Desert announced that Dr. Casey Leier has joined the HARC team as the new director of research and evaluation. Leier is a researcher with more than nine years of experience in research design and analysis. She holds a master's degree in industrial/organizational psychology from California State University, San Bernardino and a doctorate in organizational communication from Arizona State University. Leier has conducted research related to well-being, community design and social justice. Prior to joining HARC, Leier worked at Arizona State University teaching courses in a variety of different topics including advanced research methods, conflict and negotiation, and leadership and development. Leier's duties at HARC will include oversight of the triennial health needs assessment, managing all survey and data research, and research planning and development for HARC's clients.

The Coachella Valley Symphony, a nonprofit organization featuring Coachella Valley musicians, announced that John Mario Di Costanzo has accepted the position as symphonic conductor for the upcoming 2015-16 concert season. Di Costanzo was featured during the 2014-15 season as one of four guest conductors and kicked off last year's series by conducting the popular opening holiday concert. Di Costanzo was also a guest conductor for CVSymphony's Fiesta de Musica Latina concert. Di Costanzo, a veteran opera conductor, served three seasons as music director of the Tri Cities Opera in Binghamton, New York. Di Costanzo has led dozens of productions as guest conductor in companies across the country, including Sarasota Opera in Florida, Toledo Opera in Ohio, Syracuse Opera in New York, and Opera Southwest in New Mexico. In addition to his conducting duties, Di Costanzo has performed in recitals and is a leading coach of the Italian Opera repertoire in his New York City studio preparing internationally acclaimed singers for their roles on stages throughout the world.
